

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF REAL ESTATE LAWYERS
MEMBER SELECTION

John M. Nolan
Chair, Member Selection Committee
c/o American College of Real Estate Lawyers

Dear Mr. Nolan:

It is with great pleasure that I second the nomination of Nadav Ravid for membership in the American College of Real Estate Lawyers made by Sean Dennison.

I first got to know Nadav in 2012 when I represented the Shopping Center Landlord in a negotiation in which Nadav represented the Tenant. Since that negotiation, I've visited with him at the ICSC Law Conference and heard his presentations at CLEs presented by the ABA Real Property Trust & Estate Section. I know and respect his expertise in retail leasing, particularly his knowledge of issues from the Tenant's point of view. He will bring this expertise to ACREL.

Based on my experience with Nadav in negotiations and in hearing his presentations, I can confidently say that he satisfies all of ACREL's "giveback" requirements, its expertise requirements, and its other criteria for selection.

I have received and reviewed the Proposal for Membership submitted by Sean Dennison and certify that Nadav Ravid satisfies the criteria for selection to the College as set forth in Section 4 of the Guidelines for Regular Member Selection. In my opinion and to my knowledge, the Nominee satisfies ACREL's Statement of Professionalism and exemplifies the standards of professional integrity and civility as provided in the Guidelines. I am not (a) in the same firm, business entity, faculty or other organization as the Nominee, (b) related by birth or marriage to the Nominee, or (c) a current Governor or member of the Member Selection Committee of the College. Neither the nominee nor his employer regularly employs or retains me or my law firm or employer, and my experience with Nadav has been in lease negotiations and professional organizations.

Yours truly,
ACREL Member
